

20th PSSST Annual Meeting and Scientific Conference
Bayfront Hotel Cebu City
May 10-12, 2017

SECOND AND FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The 20th PSSST Annual Meeting and Scientific Conference is being organized to showcase soil science as an important discipline in the field of agriculture and its vitality in human's life. Hence, it is essential to promote and create awareness on the conservation of these significant soil resources.

This event is one way of strengthening collaboration and networking among soil science experts and partners and also in harmonizing principles for enriching our conservation and management of soil resources. It is also a great opportunity of showing and sharing research outputs that will definitively contribute in addressing soil-related problems.

This 20th PSSST Annual Meeting and Scientific Conference will be held at Bayfront Hotel, Cebu City on May 10-12, 2017. This year's theme is Creating Awareness on the importance of Soil Resource Conservation for Human Survival.
